Welcome to SASC 1993

On behalf of Shadewater Labs, the City of Lost Hills, and our regional partners, welcome to the 1993 Shadewater Applied Systems Conference. This week brings together researchers, civic planners, business leaders, educators, health administrators, software developers, financial institutions, and technology vendors to explore a simple question: how can intelligent systems make communities safer, faster, and more connected?

Throughout the week, attendees will experience live demonstrations, technical presentations, public-sector case studies, and hands-on exhibits focused on the next generation of municipal infrastructure.

EXHIBITION HALL OVERVIEW
